

European Minerals Forum Dinner Debate
Assessing the Extractive Industry's Contribution to the EC Biodiversity Action Plan

Tuesday 14 April 2009
European Parliament, Brussels

18h15 Security Clearance

18h30 Paul Rübzig, Member of the European Parliament
Industry, Research and Energy Committee

EC Biodiversity Action Plan

Heidrun Kleinert, DG Environment, European Commission

The view and the Post 2010 Vision of the Parliament regarding the 2010 Biodiversity Target

Karl-Heinz Florenz, MEP, Former Chairman of the Parliamentary Environment Committee

Partnering with the Extractive Industry

Paul Grigoriev, IUCN's Programme Coordinator for the Pan-European Region

19h45 Dinner Debate

Chairman invites contributions from Industry

Partnership on Biodiversity – The Industry's Contribution

Denis Mertens, President UEPG

Other contributions

European Minerals Day and Biodiversity

Thierry Salmona, President IMA-Europe

Crossborder Conservation Initiatives with WWF

Dr. Carl Henrich, Director General, Fachverband der Stein-und keramischen Industrie Österreich

Safeguarding Biodiversity in the Marine Environment

Simon van der Byl, Executive Director, MPA

Other contributions

Biodiversity Guidelines for the Industry and Conclusions

Jim O'Brien, CSR Consultant, formerly CRH

For further information please contact:

European Minerals Foundation Secretariat, 39 Broughton Road, London, W13 8QW

E-mail: euro.business@dial.pipex.com, Tel: +44 20 8579 4688, Fax: +44 20 8840 7345